5 GOVERNMENT'S OPENING STATEMENTS

6 MR. GOTTFRIED: Good morning. May it please the 7 Court, Mr. Sanft.

8 Members of the jury, on June 8th, 2014, Officer Alyn
9 Beck and his partner, Igor Soldo, were taking their lunch
10 break at a pizza restaurant in Northeast Las Vegas. Both men
11 were patrol officers with the Las Vegas Metro Police 12 Department. On that day, without provocation, the two 13 officers were ambushed and shot dead as they sat there eating 14 their lunch. The two officers went to work every day to 15 protect the citizens of the Las Vegas Valley, and they were 16 murdered for no reason except the uniform that they proudly 17 wore.

18 In the aftermath of that tragedy, there were many 19 members of the community that rightly sought to honor and 20 remember those officers' sacrifices. The desire to remember 21 the fallen is a natural human impulse. The defendant's 22 decision to take advantage of that impulse is the reason that 23 we're all in court today. You see, members of the jury, the 24 case that you're about to hear is not about the heartless 25 killers that took the lives of Officers Beck and Soldo. The

1 case that you're about to hear is about a public official, a 2 city councilwoman, who took advantage of those officers' 3 memories for her personal gain.

4 You're going to hear that the defendant, Michele 5 Fiore, started a fake charity and raised tens of thousands of 6 dollars supposedly for the purpose of building a memorial to 7 Officer Alyn Beck. But you're going to hear over the course 8 of this trial that that was a lie. And what's more, the 9 defendant knew that it was a lie.

10 You're going to hear that none of the money that she 11 raised, not one cent, was spent for a memorial to 12 Officer Beck. And during the course of this trial, we're 13 going to follow the money and show you how she spent it: On 14 herself and on her family, paying her rent, her political 15 fundraising bills, for plastic surgery, and for her daughter's 16 wedding.

17 Now, as a result of her actions, the grand jury has 18 charged the defendant with the crime called wire fraud, and 19 the judge has just explained to you what the elements of wire 20 fraud are. And at the end of this trial, she's going to give 21 you -- she's going to reinstruct you on what the elements of 22 wire fraud are. But basically what it means is the defendant
23 told lies in order to obtain money or property and that to do
24 so it involved the use of something called an interstate wire 25 which can be something like the deposit of a check at a bank.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

PARTIAL
2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 Now, the defendant is charged here with one count of 2 conspiracy to commit wire fraud as well as six individual 3 counts of wire fraud which are related to six specific checks 4 that were written to the defendant based on her false 5 statements.

6 Now, what I want to do now is -- over the next new 7 minutes is to go over -- go over with you some of the evidence 8 that we're going to present at this trial that's going to 9 demonstrate the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
10 And I also want to introduce to you the people who are going 11 to be presenting it.

12 My name is Alex Gottfried. I'm one of two 13 prosecutors on this case, along with my colleague, Mr. Dahoud 14 Askar. And then also seated at counsel table throughout this 15 trial is Special Agent Christina Burt from the FBI who 16 investigated this case and our paralegal, Heather Depremio.
17 We'll get to know each other quite well over the next few 18 weeks, I'm sure.

19 Now you're going to learn that during the events of 20 this case Michele Fiore, the defendant, was a city
21 councilwoman for Ward 6 in the city of Las Vegas. Now, before 22 the defendant came into that office, her predecessor, a man
23 named Steven Ross, had pushed forward an idea to name a park
24 in Ward 6 after Officer Alyn Beck. But you're going to hear 25 that in 2019, after ground was finally broken on the park, the

1 defendant began raising money from her list of donors, 2 supposedly to build a statue of Officer Beck in front of his 3 namesake park.

4 Now, you're going to see that she did this using two 5 organizations that she controlled, both of which she was the 6 sole signatory on their bank accounts. You're going to hear 7 that she used her political action committee, which was called 8 Future for Nevadans, and she also used a new nonprofit that 9 she had just started called A Bright Present Foundation.

10 You're going to hear that she promised donors, both 11 orally and in writing, that 100 percent of their contributions 12 were going to be used for the Alyn Beck statue. But you're 13 going to hear that 0 percent of their contributions were used 14 for the statue.

15 You're going to learn that neither the sculptor nor 16 Officer Beck's family ever received any money from the 17 defendant or her charity or her political action committee.
18 You're going to hear that the defendant never told her donors 19 that their money wasn't used for the statue. You're going to 20 hear that she never asked her donors whether she could use 21 their money for something besides the statue. And you're 22 going to hear that the defendant never made her donors whole 23 for failing to use their money for the purpose for which she 24 asked it. And during this trial you're going to hear the 25 testimony of donors who were defrauded into giving their money

1 to Michele Fiore.

2 The people that you're going to hear from come from 3 different backgrounds, and they each had their own reasons for 4 giving. Some of them were friends of Michele Fiore; others
5 didn't even know her. Most of them gave specifically in order
6 to honor Officer Beck, but some gave more generally to support 7 law enforcement and Veterans. The donors that you're going to 8 hear from include business leaders, attorneys, members of a 9 labor union, public officials. One of them is the governor of 10 this state. But the donors that you hear from all have this 11 in common: All of them gave because they wanted to make a 12 charitable donation, and none of them would have given if they 13 thought the defendant was going to spend their money on her 14 personal expenses.

15 But you're going to hear that that's exactly what she 16 did. You're going to hear from businesses who received money 17 from Fiore's fake charity during the period that she was 18 raising money for the Beck statue. And you're going to hear 19 how she spent her donors' money: Rent on her half-acre house
20 up in Centennial Hills, printing and fundraising bills for her 21 political campaigns, plastic surgery. You're going to hear 22 that she gave tens of thousands of dollars to a company that 23 was owned by one of her daughters and that she paid thousands 24 more to the venue where her other daughter was getting 25 married.

1 You're going to see bank records that expose the 2 defendant's theft in black-and-white. You're going to see 3 that in many instances the defendant spent the money on the 4 same day that it came in. You're going to see that in many 5 instances she used donor money to pay bills that she had no
6 other way to pay. You're going to hear from an FBI forensic 7 accountant who followed the money as the defendant used cash, 8 money orders, and transfers to other companies that she 9 controlled in an attempt to cover up and conceal her fraud.

10 Now, fortunately, as you're going to learn during 11 this trial, a statue of Officer Beck was eventually built and 12 erected outside Alyn Beck Memorial Park. It's just that the 13 defendant didn't have anything to do with paying for it.
14 You're going to hear that the statue was donated and paid for 15 in full by a private real estate developer, the same developer 16 that constructed Alyn Beck Memorial Park. In fact, you're 17 going to see that the developer signed a contract with the 18 sculptor and that they had announced their intention to pay 19 for the statue well before the defendant raised the vast 20 majority of the money in this case.

21 We're going to show you that the defendant knew at 22 the time that she raised the money that she had no intention 23 of spending that money on a statute and that she had every 24 intention of spending it on herself. At the end of the day, 25 this case is about a woman who defrauded charitable donors

1 asking for money to memorialize fallen officers but spending
2 it on her personal and political expenses. It's not any more 3 complicated than that.

4 As you listen to the witnesses and the arguments 5 during the course of this trial, all that we ask of you is 6 that you remain focused on the evidence. And after you hear 7 all the testimony and see the documents, we're confident that 8 there's only going to be one verdict that is consistent with 9 the evidence, and that's a verdict of guilty on all counts.

10 Thank you for your time and attention this morning.

11 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

12 Mr. Sanft, whenever you're ready.

13 DEFENSE'S OPENING STATEMENTS

14 MR. SANFT: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 Good morning, everyone. Obviously you've heard the 16 Government's intention, what they believe they will be able to 17 show you during the course of the time that we spend together.
18 Now, the one thing, though, and the reason why you are sitting 19 here today as jurors in this case, is that we believe both 20 myself, as well as the Government, that you will reserve your 21 judgment until the very end.

22 Amber, can you turn on the -- can we turn it on?

23 THE COURT: The screens?

24 MR. SANFT: Yes, please. Sorry.

25 THE COURT: No worries. Give us just a second.

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay.

5 MR. SANFT: Does everyone see it?

6 THE COURT: You don't have monitors? Let's put it on 7 the big screen. Here, we're going to get the big screen up.

8 MR. SANFT: Just to warn you, technology is not my 9 friend so --

10 THE COURT: It's not this courtroom's friend. So 11 it's not you, Mr. Sanft.

12 MR. SANFT: You know, what are you going to do. It's 13 a Mac. Who is the Mac guy in here? I forget. But somebody 14 who works on Macintosh. Yeah, the older ones. Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. It takes it a minute to warm

17 MR. SANFT: I apologize again.

18 THE COURT: Really new technology. It's not you.
19 It's entirely us, so... Thank you, all, for your patience. It 20 won't be the last time that we will have a technical glitch.

21 MR. SANFT: As long as the Government can see it, 22 that's all I care about. All right. So it's up there.

23 THE COURT: There we go. Can everyone see that now?
24 Thank you.

25 MR. SANFT: Now, one of the things that's going to

Amber McLane, RPR, CRR

PARTIAL
2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 happen -- thank you, Your Honor, by the way.

2 One of the things that's going to happen in this case
3 is we're going to expect you to keep your common sense
4 throughout the entire time that we spend together. We do not 5 expect you to check your common sense out at the door before 6 walking in here because that common sense -- the reason why 7 you were selected -- is because you are the jurors that will 8 hear this evidence in this case and reserve your judgment.

9 Now, the key phrase and the key thing I want you guys 10 to pay attention to is the following thing; right? And that 11 is, when you look for only one thing, you miss everything 12 else. That is going to be important in this case. That is 13 going to be critical in this case, and you're going to see 14 that.

15 Now, one of the things that you'll also find as well
16 is the evidence will show the following things; right? I'm 17 going to tell you what I believe the evidence will show, what 18 I anticipate the Government's evidence will show us on 19 cross-examination. I do not control the Government's 20 witnesses. I do not control whether they call certain 21 witnesses or not. So everything I'm telling you is 22 anticipated based upon what they have told you who the 23 witnesses will be in this case; right? And some of the names 24 you've already heard in this case.

25 Now, one of the things that you're going to learn is

Amber McLane, RPR, CRR

2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 about standard of performances, and we had talked a little bit 2 about this yesterday; right? We talked about this idea that 3 everyone has a different standard of performance. The 4 standard of performance in this case that is critical is the 5 FBI's standard of performance. Because, in essence, what they 6 do is supposed to search for the truth, and the evidence will 7 show during the time that we spend together that the FBI 8 failed utterly to do a complete and unbiased investigation of 9 Michele Fiore. That's what the evidence will show in this 10 case.

11 Now, one of the things that you're going to learn is 12 that, during the early morning hours of January 27th, 2021, a 13 raid occurred on Michele's home. And you're going to learn 14 that this happens where they do it in early mornings and they 15 do it basically because people are still sleeping and they're 16 not, you know, awake and they don't know what's going on and 17 there's a plan that happens beforehand where they get together 18 and they say, okay, we're going to target this particular 19 house. And then you're going to learn how FBI agents perform 20 searches. You're going to learn that, during the time that 21 they perform searches, everyone's assigned rooms. And it's 22 very systematic. There's a thing in place. And the reason 23 why it's in place is because they want to preserve the 24 integrity of their search, the integrity of their efforts, and 25 their investigation.

Amber McClane, RPR, CRR

2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 It's all FBI procedures; right? It's what they set
2 up for themselves. And not only does it protect their own 3 integrity, but it also protects all of us in terms of how they 4 go about doing their jobs.

5 Now, one thing you're going to learn about a search 6 warrant is they have to ask permission to do so. They can't 7 just walk into your home. They have to sit down and they have 8 to talk to a judge who gives them permission to execute a 9 search warrant on their home. You're going to learn about 10 that as well. Because in the -- in the intention that they 11 have, they tell the Court -- the judge -- what they think 12 they're going to find in the course of their search. And in 13 this particular case, one of the things is: Where is the 14 money?

15 Now, here's the thing. The Government's already told 16 you what they believe they're going to be able to show in this 17 case in terms of where the money went, but whether or not they 18 can show that beyond a reasonable doubt is a question for you 19 and only you to answer.

20 Now, during the course that we spend together, they 21 are alleging that it's wire fraud. Keep in mind wire fraud in 22 this case. The idea of what is a wire fraud. And you're 23 going to learn a little bit about that during the course of 24 the time that we spend together from one of the bank people 25 that will testify in this case about what wire fraud is. But

Amber McLane, RPR, CRR

2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 ask yourself the question: Do you know what wire fraud is?
2 You'll learn about that.

3 Now, in addition, the Government's entire case is 4 built upon this idea of GIGO. Now, what GIGO is, it's an 5 old -- I'm going to date myself here a little bit, but it's an 6 old, like, computing sort of theory that said garbage in, 7 garbage out; meaning, if you put garbage into a system, don't 8 expect nothing more than garbage to come out of the system. If 9 you put good things into the system, you'll get good things 10 out of the system. Sort of like how, you know, back in the 11 olden days you'd eat a lot of Snickers and then you think, you 12 know, you're going to be able to be buff. And I've tried a 13 lot of that, and it doesn't work. That's literally what we're 14 having here. Because the Government's case and what you'll 15 find during the course of the time that we spend together and 16 the evidence that you'll show is that they're not complete.
17 They just are producing garbage in this case. And we all rely 18 on the FBI's work.

19 What you'll also find in the time we spend together
20 is that they don't corroborate with attorneys. They don't 21 call me up and say, hey, we're doing this, is there anything
22 in here that you need that would be what's called exculpatory 23 or evidence that would tend to show that Michele's actually 24 not guilty of the crimes that we're doing. And even the 25 Government, these two young men that are over here that are

Amber McClane, RPR, CRR

2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 going to try this case, even they are beholden to what the 2 FBI's efforts are in this case. It's what the FBI agents did 3 at the time that govern here. So keep that in mind as well.

4 Now, here's what the evidence will show. Ultimately 5 at the end of the day, this is all sloppy. There's going to 6 be sloppy work from the FBI agents. There's also going to be 7 sloppy accounting keeping by Michele Fiore and her daughter 8 who helped her maintain these organizations that the 9 Government's talked about. And at the end of the day, it was 10 sloppy but not criminal. There's a difference there. Just 11 keep that in mind during the course that we spend together.

12 You have to ask yourself the question when you are 13 looking at all the evidence at the end: Was this a complete 14 and unbiased investigation? And the answer will be no.
15 Because when you're only looking for Michele's conviction and 16 not the truth, that's not a complete and unbiased 17 investigation.

18 One of the things you'll also learn during the time 19 that we spend together is the power of the badge, and what 20 that means is FBI agents will come knock on your door and talk 21 to you; right? They'll come knock on the door, show you their 22 credentials, and say, we'd like to have a word with you. Of 23 they'll come to your work and do it there. Typically on the 24 first time or second time, they're not calling you for 25 appointments. They're just coming in, they're showing you the

Amber McLane, RPR, CRR

2:24-cr-00155-JAD-DJA • September 25, 2024

1 badge, and sitting down with you. The reason why that's 2 important is because at some point in the future you're going 3 to learn about the efforts of the defense to try to call the 4 same people and how the same people who won't -- who will talk 5 to the FBI won't talk to the defense in this case. The 6 efforts that were made to have that same conversation outside
7 of the fact that, you know, the FBI's doing it. You'll learn 8 about that during the course of the time we spend together.

9 And in addition, bank statements alone do not prove 10 wire fraud. You're going to learn about that.

11 Now, here's the thing. Once again, the theme: When 12 you're only looking for one thing, you miss everything else.
13 And that's been the danger from the Government from the very 14 beginning and the FBI in this case.

15 And what you're going to learn is, is that the FBI 16 has a duty to do their jobs correctly to protect everyone, 17 including Michele Fiore. The lady that's sitting over here 18 that's accused, she also deserves their best, and they did not 19 give that to her.

20 Now, we expect you to hold the Government to their 21 burden of proving what they're telling you today beyond a 22 reasonable doubt. But ultimately what's going to happen is, 23 when you look through the entire case, when you spend all this 24 time together, the evidence will prove out that the Government 25 cannot prove their case beyond a reasonable doubt against
